Provided that, when the appointment is made on a current charge basis or by way of additional charge, his pay shall be fixed in the prescribed manner:

Provided further that, where a civil servant has been dismissed or removed from service or reduced in rank, he shall, in the event of the order of dismissal, removal from service or reduction in rank being set aside, be entitled to such arrears of pay as the authority setting aside the order may determine.

16. Leave.—A civil servant shall be allowed leave in accordance with the leave rules applicable to him:

Provided that the grant of leave shall depend on the exigencies of service and shall be at the discretion of the competent authority.

17. Pension and gratuity.—(1) On retirement from service, a civil servant shall be entitled to receive such pension, or gratuity as may be prescribed.

(2) In the event of death of a civil servant, whether before or after retirement, his family shall be entitled to receive such pension, or gratuity, or both, as may be prescribed.

(3) No pension shall be admissible to a civil servant who is dismissed or removed from service for reasons of discipline but Government may sanction compassionate allowance to such a servant, not exceeding two-thirds of the pension or gratuity, which would have been admissible to him if he had been by bodily or mental infirmity incapacitated for further service on the date of such dismissal or removal.

(4) If the determination of the amount of pension or gratuity admissible to a civil servant is delayed beyond one month of the date of his retirement or death, he or his family, as the case may be, shall be paid provisionally such anticipatory pension or gratuity as may be determined by the prescribed authority according to the length of service of civil servant which qualifies for pension or gratuity and any overpayment consequent upon such provisional payment shall be adjusted against the amount of pension or gratuity finally determined as payable to such civil servant or his family.

18. Provident Fund.—(1) Before the expiry of the third month of every financial year, the accounts officer or other officer required to maintain provident fund accounts shall furnish to every civil servant subscribing to a provident fund the account of which he is required to maintain a statement under his hand showing the subscriptions to, including the interest accruing thereon, if any and withdrawals or advances from his provident fund during the preceding financial year.

(2) Where any subscription made by a civil servant to his provident fund has not been shown or credited in the account by the accounts officer or other officer required to maintain such account, such subscription shall be credited to the account of the civil servant on the basis of such evidence as may be prescribed.

19. Benevolent Fund and Group Insurance.— All civil servants and their families shall be entitled to the benefits admissible under the Federal employees (Benevolent Fund & Group Insurance) Act, 1965 and the Gilgit-Baltistan Government Employees Welfare Fund Act, 2011 and the rules made thereunder.

20. Right of appeal or representations.—(1) Where a right to prefer an appeal or apply for review in respect of any order relating to the terms and conditions of his service is allowed to a civil servant by any rules applicable to him, such appeal or application shall, except as may otherwise be prescribed, be made within sixty days of the communication to him of such order.

(2) Where no provision for appeal or review exists in the rules in respect of any order, a civil servant aggrieved by any such order may, except where such order is made by the Governor, within sixty days of the communication to him of such order, make a representation against it to the authority next above the authority which made the order:

Provided that, no representation shall lie on matters relating to the determination of fitness of a person to hold a particular post or to be promoted to a higher post.

CHAPTER-III

MISCELLANEOUS

21. Saving.—Nothing in this Act or in any rule shall be construed to limit or bridge the power of the Governor to deal with the case of any civil servant in such manner as may appear to him to be just and equitable:

Provided that, where this Act or any rule is applicable to the case of a civil servant, the case shall not be dealt with in any manner less favourable to him than that provided by this Act or such rule.

22. Indemnity.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against a civil servant for anything done in his official capacity which is done in a good faith or intended to be done under this Act or the rules, instructions or directions made or issued thereunder.

23. Jurisdiction barred.—Save as provided under this Act and the Gilgit Baltistan Service Tribunals Act, 2011, or the rules made thereunder no order made or proceedings taken under this Act, or the rules made thereunder by the Governor or any official Authorised by him shall be called in question in any Court and no injunction shall be granted by any Court in respect of any decision made, or proceedings taken in pursuance of any power conferred by or under, this Act or the rules made thereunder.

CHAPTER-IV

RULES

24. Rules.—(1) The Governor, or any person authorised in this behalf may make such rules as appear to him to be necessary or expedient for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Any rules, orders or instructions in respect of any terms and conditions of service of civil servants duly made or issued by an authority competent to make them and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, insofar as such rules, orders or instructions are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to be rules made under this Act.

9. Expedited disposal of proceedings.—(1) In a case where the authority decides not to have an inquiry conducted against the accused, the proceedings must be finalized by him within a period of forty-five days.

(2) In a case where the authority has appointed an Inquiry Officer Inquiry Committee, the Inquiry Officer/Inquiry Committee should ensure the entire proceedings are completed within a period of ninety days from the date of receipt of direction under rule 5 and shall submit a report thereof to the authority.

(3) Where inquiry proceedings are not completed by the inquiry officer or the inquiry committee, as the case may be, within the prescribed ad the Inquiry Officer or the Inquiry Committee, as the case may be, I report the position of the inquiry to the authority intimating the reasons why the inquiry could not be completed within that period and the approximate further time that is likely to be taken in the completion of the dry.

(4) The authority on receipt of report under sub-rules (2) and (3), 1 pass such orders for expeditious finalization of the proceedings as it deem fit.

10. In the case of any proceedings the record of which has been reported for orders under sub-rule 7(b) of rule 7, the authority may pass such orders as it deems fit but before imposing a major penalty, the authority shall afford the accused an opportunity of being heard in person either before himself or before an officer senior in rank to the accused designated for the purpose, after taking into consideration the record of such personal hearing prepared by the officer so designated:

Provided that where the authority is satisfied that inquiry proceedings have not been conducted in accordance with these rules or facts and merits of the case have been ignored, it may order initiation of de novo inquiry through a speaking order by giving the reasons thereof within a period of 14 days.

11. Certain rules not to apply in certain cases.—(1) Where a civil servant is convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude which has led to a sentence of fine or imprisonment, he may, after being given a show-cause notice, be dismissed, removed from service or reduced in rank without following the procedure laid down in rules 5, 6, 7 and 10.

(2) Where the authority is satisfied that for reason to be recorded it writing, it is not reasonably practicable to give the accused civil servant an opportunity of showing cause it may impose any of the penalties under these rules without following the procedure laid down in rules 5, 6, 7 and 10.

(3) Notwithstanding the other provisions of these rules where the government Authority is satisfied that one or more civil servants, individually or collectively have taken part in agitational and subversive activities, resorted to strike, condoned their official duty or incited others to do so, the Government authority may after serving upon them a notice through a publication in a daily newspaper or in any other manner, asking them to resume duty, and on their failure or refusal to resume their duty impose upon the defaulting civil servant the penalty of dismissal or removal from service without following the procedure as laid down in rules 5, 6, 7 and 10.

12. Procedure of inquiry against officers lent to other Governments, etc.—(1) Where the services of a civil servant to whom these rules apply are lent to any other Government or to a local or other authority, in these rules referred to as the borrowing authority, the borrowing authority shall have the powers of authority for the purpose of placing him under suspension of requiring him to proceed on leave and of initiating proceedings against him under these rules:

Provided that, the borrowing authority shall forthwith inform the authority which has lent his services, hereinafter in these rules referred to as the lending authority, of the circumstances leading to the order of his suspension or the commencement of the proceedings, as the case may be:

Provided further that, the borrowing authority shall obtain prior approval of the Government of the Gilgit-Baltistan before taking any action under these rules against a civil servant holding a post in Basic Pay Scale 17 or above.

(2) If, in the light of the findings in the proceedings taken against a will servant in terms of sub-rule (1) above, the borrowing authority is of the opinion that any penalty should be imposed on him, it shall transmit to the ending authority the record of the proceedings and thereupon the lending authority shall take action as prescribed in these rules.

(3) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-rules (1) and (2) Government may, in respect of certain civil servants or categories of civil servants, authorise the borrowing authority to exercise all the powers of authority under these rules.

13. Power to order Medical Examination as to mental or bodily infirmity.—Where it is proposed to proceed against a civil servant on the ground of inefficiency by reasons of infirmity of mind or body, the authority may, at any stage, whether or not an authority has been directed to proceed against him, require the civil servant to undergo a medical examination by Medical Board or a Medical Superintendent as the authority may direct, and the report of the Board or the Medical Superintendent shall form part of the proceedings.

(2) If a civil servant refuses to undergo such an examination, his refusal may, subject to the consideration, of such grounds as he may give in support of it, be taken into consideration against him as showing that he had reason to believe that the result of the examination would prove infavourable to him.

14. Powers of Inquiry Officer and Inquiry Committee.—(1) For the purpose of an inquiry under these rules, the Inquiry Officer and the Inquiry Committee shall have the powers of a Civil Court trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), in respect of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance, any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) requiring the discovery and production of documents;
- (c) receiving evidence on affidavits; and
- (d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents.

(2) The proceedings under these rules shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of Sections 193 and 228 of the Pakistan Penal Code (XLV of 1860).

APPEALS, REVISIONS, ETC.

15. Appeal against penalty.—Any civil servant on whom a penalty has been imposed under these rules, except where the penalty has been imposed by the Government, may within 30 days from the date of the communication of the order, appeal to such authority as may be prescribed:

Provided that, if the appellate authority is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for extending the time it may entertain the appeal at any time.

16. Petition of appeal.—Every appeal preferred under these rules shall be made in the form of a petition, in writing, and shall set forth concisely the grounds of objection to the order appealed from, and shall not contain disrespectful or improper language and shall be filed with the authority or the inquiry officer who, as the case may be, passed the original orders. The authority or the inquiry officer, receiving the appeal, shall forward the same along with the comments within a fortnight, to the appellate authority.

17. Determination of appeal.—(1) The appellate authority shall cause notice to be given to the appellant and the authority or the inquiry officer imposing penalty, of the time and place at which such appeal will be heard. The appellate authority shall send for record of the case, if such record is not already with it. After perusing such record and hearing the appellant, if he appears, and the representative of the punishing authority, if he appears, the appellate authority may, if it considers that there is no sufficient ground for interfering, dismiss the appeal or may:—

- (a) reverse the finding and acquit the accused; or
- (b) order and direct that further or fresh inquiry be made; or
- (c) alter the finding maintaining the penalty or with or without altering the finding, reduce the penalty, or
- (d) subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), enhance the penalty:

Provided that, where the Governor or the Chief Minister is the appellate authority, he may, in his direction, designate any officer, except the one against whose orders the appeal has been preferred, for the purpose of affording the appellant an opportunity of being heard in person and submit the case to the Governor or Chief Minister for final determination of the appeal.

(2) Where the appellate authority proposes to enhance the penalty it shall:-

- (i) by order, in writing, inform the accused of the action proposed to be taken and the grounds of the action; and
- (ii) give him a reasonable opportunity to show cause against that action.

(3) In dealing with an appeal, the appellate authority, if it thinks additional evidence to be necessary, may either take such evidence itself or direct it to be taken by the authority officer and when such evidence has been taken the appellate authority shall thereupon proceed to dispose of the appeal.

18. Review and not appeal in certain cases.—Where the original order has been passed by the Government, no appeal shall lie, and instead, a review petition shall lie to the Government and the Government may, in its discretion, exercise any of the powers conferred on the appellate authority:

Provided that, it shall not be necessary for the Government to afford the accused an opportunity to be heard in person except where the Government proposes to increase the penalty in which case he shall, by order in writing, inform the accused of the action proposed to be taken and the grounds of the action and give him a reasonable opportunity to show cause against that action.

(2) Where the original order imposing penalty upon a member of the subordinate judiciary, who is or has been working under the administrative control of the Lahore High Court, Lahore, has been passed by the High Court, no appeal shall lie and instead a review petition shall lie to the High Court.

19. No second appeal except in certain cases.—(1) No appeal shall lie against any order made by the appellate authority except in case the appellate authority enhances the penalty.

(2) In every case, in which the appellate authority enhances the penalty imposed by the authority or the Inquiry Officer, the accused may, within 30 days of the communication of the orders, appeal to the authority next higher thereto:

Provided that, if the second appellate authority is satisfied that there is sufficient ground for extending the time, it may entertain the appeal at anytime.

(3) The appeal shall be filed in the manner indicated in rule 16 and, the second appellate authority shall determine the appeal in the manner provided for the first appellate authority and may exercise any of the powers-conferred on the first appellate authority.

20. Revision.—(1) The Government may call for, and examine the record of any proceeding before any authority for the purpose of satisfying as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any finding, penalty or order recorded or passed and as to the regularity of any proceeding of such authority.

(2) On examining any record under this rule, the Government may direct the authority to make further inquiry into the charges of which the accused has been acquitted and discharged, and may in its discretion, exercise any of the powers conferred on an appellate authority:

Provided that any order under this rule made prejudicial to the accused shall not be passed unless he has been given an opportunity to show cause against the proposed action:

Provided further that an order imposing punishment or exonerating the accused shall not be revised suo motu or otherwise after the lapse of a period of one year from the date of its communication to the accused except in case where appeal is preferred against the punishment.

(3) No proceeding by way of revision shall be entertained at the instance of the accused who has a right of appeal under these rules and has not Drought the appeal.
